EasyFlush®

KATRIN EasyFlush hand towels are for closed sewage systems, such as found on transport systems including trains, planes and ships. EasyFlush delivers gentle but top-performing products, which rapidly and completely dissolve in water!

Logistics

In logistics, we aim to always deliver on time and in full (OTIF), whilst minimising transport emissions and costs.

We focus on efficient supply chain management, with mills close to both our raw materials and consumers helping to reduce our footprint further.

We favour railways and waterways and only work with transport companies that are committed to an environmental approach.

Reducing our footprint

Metsä Tissue reduces its environmental impacts by reducing the total amount of energy consumed; increasing the use of non-fossil fuels and by using environmentally sound energy sources such as biomass and production waste.

We minimise effluents and actively seek non-landfill uses for production waste. We are also co-owners in a company that specialises in the recovery of by-products and waste originating from the forest industry and energy production and in finding the most efficient alternative ways of reusing this material.

We actively promote recycling and encourage consumers to join in our common effort to ensure the most ecological use of wood fibre through efficient paper recovery. We are also investors in specialist companies which provide recycling and environmental services.
